The Art of Folding the Future by Issey Miyake

三宅一生

October 17 – December 31, 2024

Issey Miyake was more than a fashion designer. He was a visionary who reshaped how we think about creativity. His work challenged normality, offering new ways of seeing and experiencing design.

This exhibition celebrates Miyake's legacy of innovation, from his iconic pleats to his belief in creating for joy and curiosity rather than ego. Step inside to explore the mind of a true pioneer.

National Canadian Museum of History